

I oppose removing Element 1 from Amateur Radio licensing requirements for any licensee with HF privileges.

Licensees in the Amateur Radio Service enjoy broad privileges that span continents on a wide spectrum of frequencies adjacent to, and shared with many other essential radio services. Testing for admission to the Amateur Radio Service must reflect the Service's profound duty to serve the nation with the skills, abilities, knowledge and expertise unique to the Service.